This dispatch calls to mind one of the most famous cases ever before the English courts—that of Tichborne vs. Tushington—in which the plaining claimed the Tichborne baronetey and estates which were worth about $120,000 a year. The case dragged along in the courts for several years.

Toronto After the Pugilists. Tonoxto, Dec. 21.-An effort is being made to have the Dempsey-Ryan fight, which was to have taken place in New Orleans last Saturday but was cancelled owing to the fatal termination of the Lavigne-Bowen fight, pulled off in or near this city. Backers of the two puglists are now here, having come di ect from New Orleans. The scheme is to arrange a meeting somewhere unknown to the police and after the scrap the principals and confederates will skip back to United States territory.
